

1. That the whereabouts of the above named Respondents are unknown as their identities are unknown.

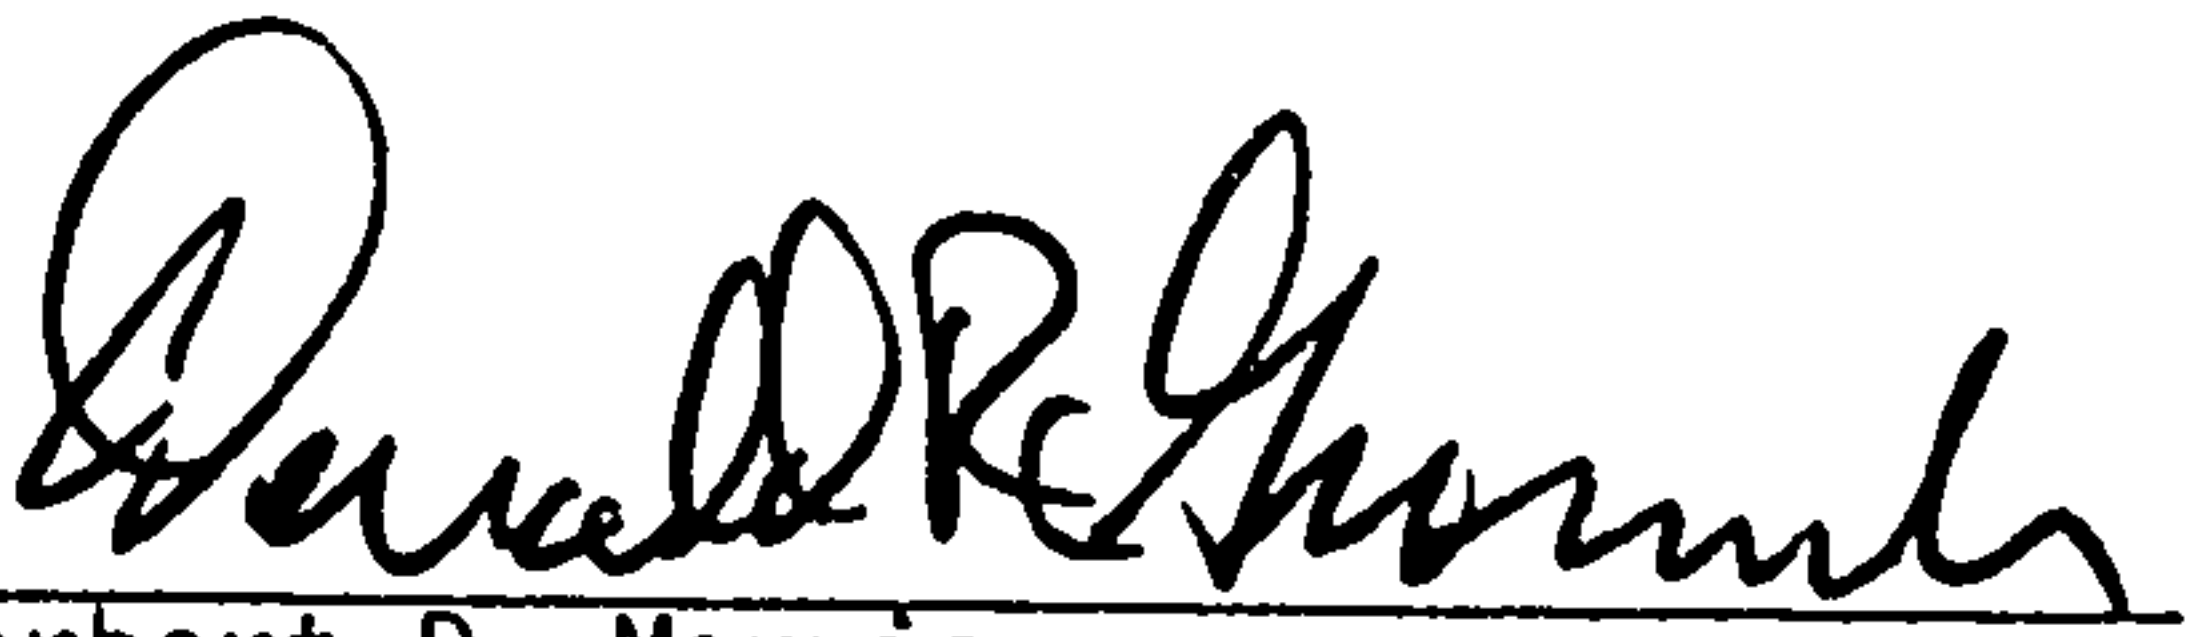

2. That since the subject matter of this suit involves real property, posting in lieu of publication may be more effective to inform any perspective Respondent of the pending action and will also inform any other perspective claimants or possessors of the property of this action as the cause of action is based on possession of real property.

3. Posting in Lieu of Publication is authorized in this Court's discretion by Maryland Rule 111(a).

WHEREFORE, Complainant's pray:

1. To be allowed to serve process on the Respondents by Posting in Lieu of Publication.
